

Our Five Year Ambition 2013 to 2017

Strategic area	Long term conditions and urgent care	Planned, safe, effective care	Vulnerable people	Health and wellbeing
Focussed area	Implementation of Harrogate and Rural District Urgent Care Strategy Appropriate use of community facilities Ongoing support for integrated care teams Continued integration of health and social care	Commissioning tailored to local need Promote equity in access to planned care Support care closer to home	Integration of Health and Social Care Working with voluntary sector providers Care closer to home Better support for carers	Wider environment issues and Health and Wellbeing Strategy Wider determinants of health
Initiatives	Fully integrated A&E and Out of Hours service IT solution to enable communication between organisations Implementation of vision for Ripon Hospital Established networks of self-care for multiple long term conditions System-wide agreed plan of financial and contractual changes to enable true integration of care. Community facilities used to their maximum potential Integrated teams to expand and also use Advanced Care Planning (ACP) Use of technology	Commission planned care which has evidence of clinical effectiveness and takes account of patient need Re-design pathways to ensure appropriate access to treatment Implement robustly designed and fairly applied clinical thresholds Provide care outside hospital where appropriate Fully embedded use of shared decision making Improve communication between primary, secondary and community care Wider voluntary and third sector involvement in planned care	Clear data sharing arrangements between health and social care Improved access to psychological therapies Enable care at home when appropriate and facilitate discharge	Targeted support and education for areas of need, including children's health Further partnership developments
Benefits	Better experience of urgent care for patients More personal control over your health More community service infrastructure More care at home	Patients seen in right place at the right time, every time	Care closer to home	Improved health of the population