Dear

Your Request for Information

I am writing in response to your recent request that we received on xxxxxx, in which you requested the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Information Requested

Response

Please see attached dataset

The information you have requested is defined as a dataset in Section 11 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. This information is copyrighted to NHS Harrogate and Rural District CCG and provided to you free of charge in a re-usable format under an Open Government Licence as required by the Act. Under this license you are free to, copy, publish, distribute and transmit the Information, adapt the Information and exploit it commercially and non-commercially for example, by combining it with other Information, or by including it in your own product or application.

Re-use is subject to the following conditions:

- Organisations must ensure that the information is reproduced accurately and indicates the date at which the information was released by the CCG.
- Any publication which incorporates the CCG's information must include an acknowledgement of the source of the information.

Chief Officer Amanda Bloor
Clinical Chair Dr Alistair Ingram

The Freedom of Information service is provided to the CCG by the North Yorkshire and Humber Commissioning Support Unit

- Any comments associated by you to the information must clearly state that it is not necessarily the view of the CCG.
- Readers of the information must not be given the impression that the CCG is responsible for, or has in any way approved, the publication in which the information has been reproduced.
- The information may not be altered or amended unless such material is clearly marked as altered or amended by the organisation or others.
- When reproducing the CCG's materials, organisations must not use the information in a misleading way and have regard to any qualifying statements or descriptions attached to the information, (for example, descriptions such as 'consultation document', 'discussion paper', or 'preliminary view' are important as are statements concerning the audience at which the material is directed). If the information is reproduced in full, or substantial extracts are reproduced, any qualifying statements attached to the information must be included.

If you have any concerns about the way your request has been handled; the operation of the Publication Schemes; the response received, or the 'exemption' decision, you should, in the first instance contact me to try to resolve them. If you are not happy with the outcome, you can write to our Chief Officer at the address above to make a request for an internal review.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of the internal review, you can then write to the Information Commissioner:
